

SCSUG 2012 Educational Forum Houston, TX

Junior Professional Award

Applicant Information

OPPORTUNITY

The SCSUG Educational Forum is held every year and is one of the most cost-effective learning opportunities available to you!

The Executive Committee is offering Junior Professional Awards for the 2012 Educational Forum.

ELIGIBILITY

All persons who meet the following eligibility requirements are encouraged to apply:

- ✘ Must be a recent graduate (fall 2011 or later) of a college or university and have used SAS in coursework or research OR
- ✘ Must have used SAS on the job for three years or less and would otherwise not be funded by your company to attend the forum (part-time or full-time employment)
- ✘ Must be able to provide a supervisor's or professor's contact information as a reference.

Note: Award recipients are expected to attend all days of the conference and volunteer at the forum.

Junior Professional Awards include:

- ✘ Waived Registration Fee
- ✘ Hotel Accommodations (two nights)
- ✘ Travel Reimbursement*
- ✘ One Half-day Pre- or Post-Conference Training Session

 Travel expenses are fixed and may not cover all travel expenses incurred.*

Applicants are encouraged, but not required, to submit at least a 20 min paper/presentation. Those who submit a paper/presentation and are accepted will have first priority to Junior Professional Awards.

Applications will be accepted starting in July 2012 via the online application.

Questions?

E-mail Lizette Alonzo at lizette_alonzo@sra.com