

SCSUG 2012 Educational Forum Houston, TX

Student Scholarships

Applicant Information

OPPORTUNITY

The SCSUG Educational Forum is held every year and is one of the most cost-effective learning opportunities available to you!

The Executive Committee is offering scholarships to full- and part-time college undergraduate or graduate students to attend the 2012 educational forum.

ELIGIBILITY

All students who meet the following eligibility requirements are encouraged to apply:

- ✧ Must be a full or part-time college level student using SAS in coursework or on the job
- ✧ Must be able to provide a professor's name and contact information as a reference
- ✧ Must be enrolled in classes at the time of the conference (Fall 2012)
- ✧ Must be able to provide a valid student ID or proof of enrollment

Questions?

E-mail Lisa Mendez at
Lisa_Mendez@sra.com

For more information about the educational forum visit our website at www.scsug.org.

Scholarship recipient poses by the 2009 SCSUG Educational Forum Scholarship Winners poster

Students are encouraged, but not required, to submit at least a 20 min paper/presentation. Those who submit a paper/presentation and are accepted will have first priority to student scholarships.

Applications will be accepted starting in August 2012 via the online application.

Student Scholarship Awards include*:

- ✧ Waived Registration Fee
- ✧ Hotel Accommodations (two nights)
- ✧ One Half-day Pre- or Post - Conference Training Session
- ✧ Travel Reimbursement

* Award recipients are expected to attend all days of the conference and volunteer at the forum.

 Travel reimbursements are fixed and may not cover all travel expenses incurred.